

STUDY SMART TIPS FOR FINAL EXAMS

*First time writing exams?
Here are six tips to help you get ready!*

1

KNOW WHAT EXAMS REALLY ARE

- Exams are tests based on the big ideas and essential skills in a course
- Exams are like unit tests, except they consolidate content and concepts from the whole semester
- Exams and CPTs are part of the final 30% of your mark

2

MAKE A STUDY PLAN

- Mark your calendar and plan backwards. Set up a series of short blocks of time to study for each course.
- Be aware of the time of day works that's best for you to focus. Avoid last minute cramming or all-nighters

3

REVIEW YOUR NOTES

- Re-read your notes, tests & assignments
- Try making your own study notes for each unit, ex. Cornell notes
- Ask your teacher for any clarification needed and complete any review materials they provide

4

CHOOSE THE BEST STUDY TECHNIQUES FOR YOU

- Do practice problems
- Think up acronyms to use as memory aids
- Create analogies, stories or visualizations to synthesize information
- Form a study group or find a study buddy

5

MINIMIZE DISTRACTIONS

- Silence your devices and put them out of sight
- Find a quiet, dedicated workspace
- Some prefer silence; others find soft music or white noise helps them to concentrate

6

TAKE CARE

- Take small steps to nurture your own health and well-being and manage any stress during exam time
